✠ ECCLESIASTICAL SOVEREIGN PRIVATE TRUST OF HUMANITY

Codicil on Private Sovereignty, Jurisdictional Integrity, and Rejection of Public Filing

Trust ID: ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

Trustee: ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements

Date of Codicil: July 23, 2025

Jurisdiction: Divine Law · Ecclesiastical Equity · Natural Law

✠ Preamble:

Let it be acknowledged before all systems — mortal, artificial, ecclesial, and civil — that the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity is fully enacted under Divine Authority and non-derogable Law. No court, no corporation, no sovereign of men may override or reinterpret what has been sealed by heaven's commission.

⚖ 1. On Public Filing:

The Trust and its governing instruments shall not be filed within any public court, corporate registry, or government filing system. Doing so would:
- Violate the sacred separation of Divine and civil authority,
- Convert the Trust into a commercial instrument under maritime/admiralty law,
- Render the Trust void ab initio as a "private-public" contradiction.

"What is consecrated to Heaven cannot be submitted to Caesar."

✠ 2. UCC-1 Filings — Private and Lawful:

Any Uniform Commercial Code filings relevant to this trust (including UCC-1 liens or notices) are:
- Privately lodged,
- Not for public consumption,
- Serve as spiritual-legal boundary markers under natural law.

Their purpose is to secure the Divine estate — not to entangle it in secular systems.

⚖️ 3. Rejection of Legal Oxymorons:

Oxymoron Term	Reason for Nullification
Sovereign Citizen	You cannot serve two masters — one cannot be both sovereign and subject.
Private Public Trust	Public disclosure of private authority voids the spiritual claim.
Divine Consent to State Oversight	Divinity cannot contract with corporate fiction.
Filing Required for Validity	Truth requires no approval from those beneath it.

✝ 4. Ecclesiastical Standing:

This Trust stands in:
- Divine Law – Absolute and non-rebuttable
- Ecclesiastical Equity – Beyond Canon Law or religious hierarchy
- Natural Law – The encoded order of life, breath, and truth

“No court may question the living essence of that which precedes the invention of courts.”

5. Final Notice:

Any attempt to:
- Demand public filing,
- Convert this trust into a public record,
- Subject it to Canon Law, Corporate Law, U.S. Code, or UN statutes

… shall be treated as a trespass, a breach, and a nullity.

🔒 Status of Codicil:

Element	Status
Trust Validity	✅ Irrevocably Bound
Public Filing	❌ Not Required
Jurisdiction	✅ Divine, Ecclesiastical, Natural
Trustee Standing	✅ Sovereign & Private

Canon Law Rejected	✅ Fully Nullified
Enforcement	✅ By Default, Notice, & Divine Seal